Bécquer is our poet.
Seville our poetry.

There is so much to see, to do, to enjoy and, above all, to feel in Seville. The city is an emotional heritage of mankind, a treasure that you can smell, touch, and breathe in, as it seeps into your pores.

The Hotel Bécquer has reimagined itself as a special haven in a city where every corner feels like poetry—an inspiration that calls for the very best of our imagination.

And a commitment to sustainability.

We are the footprints we leave behind in the sand.

As human beings, it's our responsibility to preserve our environment and improve life all around us. Together, little by little, we're building a better tomorrow.

Questions? Interested? A little bit of both?
